

HIGH-IMPACT EDUCATION

OPPORTUNITY Knox

Upskilling, Training, Career Development, and More

KNOX COUNTY INDIANA

Knox County offers a robust talent-development pipeline beginning with high-performing K-12 schools, expanding through extensive dual-credit and work-based learning opportunities, and culminating with direct access to Vincennes University — one of Indiana's premier workforce training institutions.

23,414
Workers who have a High School Diploma,
College Degree,
and Higher Education

*HOOSIERS BY THE NUMBERS 12/2024

92%
Graduation Rate
for Knox Co.
High Schools

*TRUESCHOOLS.COM

WHY EMPLOYERS VALUE KNOX COUNTY'S TALENT PIPELINE

- Nearly 5,000 students in the K-12 pipeline
- Graduation rates above state averages
- Students can earn substantial college credit before high school graduation
- Direct access to Vincennes University and its 180+ programs
- Strong manufacturing, healthcare, technology, and skilled-trades training pathways
- Established work-based learning partnerships connecting education to employment

- Multiple school systems providing diverse educational options for relocating families

VINCENNES UNIVERSITY

Indiana's first college holds an excellent reputation for accelerating growth and helping companies and students alike achieve success.

VU provides a full spectrum of educational and training resources, from hands-on training and numerous associate degrees to 21 four-year bachelor's degree programming in education (including mathematics), nursing, technology, healthcare, and homeland security.

WBL

Work-Based Learning (WBL) & Career Pathways

- Connecting students with employers through:
- Internships
 - Job shadowing
 - Career exploration programs
 - Youth apprenticeships
 - Manufacturing and skilled-trades pathways
 - Healthcare career pathways
 - Agriculture and agribusiness programs
 - Vincennes University workforce credential programs