KNOX COUNTY

LETTER FROM THE MAYOR

Mayor Joe Yochum

The city of Vincennes is rich in history. As the oldest city in Indiana, Vincennes has a population of 17,729 and is Knox County's county seat. Its historic downtown district makes it a regional hub for commerce and it is a member of the Indiana Main Street program.

Vincennes was founded in 1732 by Francois Marie Bissot-Sieur de Vincennes, a French military officer. This area was part of New France and the military post was built on the Wabash River to protect the rich fur trade here from the British. When the fur trade died out, this area turned to agriculture and is still rich in agriculture to this day. This military post became the oldest continuous settlement in Indiana, and continues to be at the forefront of development while preserving the history and charm of the city.

Since 2015, over $15 million has been invested privately and publicly into the Downtown area. Vincennes has experienced tremendous growth in new business along with improvements and expansions of existing businesses. In addition to the exciting activities taking place in the downtown area, the Kimmel Pointe development at Hart Street and Kimmel Road is taking shape -- a 17+ acre power center that will be anchored by Hobby Lobby and Marshalls.

Knox County enjoys a variety of both public and private education options with millions of dollars in recent renovations, a focus on safety, and a wide variety of extracurricular activities. These schools offer the best in education and boast graduation rates near 100 percent. The City of Vincennes has expanded programs in workforce development and talent attraction to accelerate the pipeline of skilled workers vital to our growing community.

I hope the information contained in this prospectus will help potential investors recognize the quality and breadth of our local facilities, our extensive resources, the diversity of opportunities and the great mix of amenities the city of Vincennes has to offer. I urge individuals and groups interested in our two Opportunity Zones to give careful attention to the projects highlighted in the prospectus. We are confident you will realize a substantial return on your investment because of the passion and commitment by leaders and residents to elevate Vincennes, Indiana to new heights of excellence.

Please know that the invitation to visit is always open.
